CONFERENCE

WHAT'S WORKING IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT?

June 23 - 25, 2008

Wolfville, Nova Scotia, Canada

Horizons Community Development Associates Inc. (www.horizonscda.ca)
in partnership with the International Association for Community Development (www.iacdglobal.org) is very pleased to announce our upcoming conference,
What's Working in Community Development?

The purposes of this international conference are to:

- 1) Facilitate the exchange of good practice information and research among community development workers and thinkers; and
- 2) Facilitate networking among community development practitioners in Nova Scotia, with the Community Development Society, and in other parts of the world.

This intimate event for 150 participants will take place from June 23rd – 25th 2008 at Acadia University (www.acadiau.ca) in the idyllic rural community of Wolfville, Nova Scotia, Canada <http://www.wolfville.com/>. The full conference program and registration information will be available in January 2008.

Please mark your calendars now!

Conference highlights include:

- An opportunity to share learnings from your practice and research
- Keynote address by Joanne Linzey, Vice-President, Community Impact United Way of Canada-Centraide Canada
- Keynote address by Ron Colman, Executive Director, Genuine Progress Index Atlantic
- Two Planks and a Passion theatrical presentation on asset based community development

- Live link with the Community Development Society conference (www.comm-dev.org) happening concurrently in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada.
- Carnegie UK Trust seminar on asset based community development
- Opportunity to participate in the IACD Annual General Meeting
- Welcome Reception at the KC Irving Environmental Science Centre at Acadia University
- Nova Scotia kitchen party
- Optional post-conference tours (June 25th)

An international momentum of community development networks around the world is building! Come be part of the global voice!
